Flipped Class

In-Class Section

In My Class ...

Freshmen

CET-4

Be aware to use hedging words to make their statements less absolute.

4 SECTIONS

01   Definition Review

02   Exercise Checking

03   Word Bank Building & Blank Filling

04   Iproduce: Conversations & Oral Report

Definition Review

What is Hedging ?

- ◆ Language Strategies

- ◆ Make Statements Less Absolute

- ◆ Frequently Used Words

Exercise Checking

Students share hedged claims found in the text

- She really seems to look at us and to have a mind of her own.

- Their figures look somewhat hard and harsh, almost wooden.

- It looks as if the painter had suddenly cast a spell over it, and...

- If we now return to the Mona Lisa, we may understand something of its mysterious effect.

......

Studentsb share hedged claims found in the text

◆ She really seems to look at us and to have a mind of her own.

◆ Their figures look somewhat hard and harsh, almost wooden.

◆ It looks as if the painter had suddenly cast a spell over it, and…

◆ If we now return to the Mona Lisa, we may understand something of its mysterious effect.

……

Hedging can be applied when talking about art works.

Word Bank Building

Blank Filling

Word Bank Building

usually always hardly sometimes often sort of possibly

generally speaking

may

as if basically suggest somewhat almost occasionally

could perhaps

Blank Filling

hardly   often   as if   usually perhaps   possibly   sort of   sometimes basically   always   may   generally speaking occasionally   almost   suggest   could   somewhat

1. Thaddeus and Simon are immersed in lively conversation, _____ about the betrayal.

2. The figure _____ to be looking for an explanation.

3. It is _____ the most well-known art work of impressionism.

4. The figure look _____ hard and harsh, _____ wooden.

......

So far …

Students have word banks and sentence structures for

- ◆ describing the features

- ◆ describing the techniques

- ◆ describing the painters & background

- ◆ hedging word bank

- ◆ relevant information selected from the text

Four-member Group

host

ask the questions about the work

two speakers

respond to host

note-taker

note the information, including the hedging language

- -

give a short oral report on what their conversation has just covered.

THANKS